

Shanyelle L. Young, Broker/Owner – S Young Realty & Associates, LLC

Shanyelle L. Young is the Broker/Owner of S Young Realty & Associates, LLC, a boutique real estate firm she founded in 2016 after following her dream of entrepreneurship. With over 20 years of experience as a REALTOR®, Shanyelle leads a diverse and dynamic team of eight successful agents, each bringing unique strengths and perspectives to the business.

A proud graduate of the University of Connecticut, Shanyelle holds a dual degree in Economics and Sociology. Her leadership and professional excellence have earned her multiple distinctions, including the Hartford Business Journal's 2021 Women in Business Award and recognition as one of the 2022 100 Women of Color.

Shanyelle serves on the Executive Board and as a State Director for the Connecticut REALTORS® Association, where she currently chairs the Connecticut State Accountability for Racial Justice and Inequality in Real Estate Task Force. At the national level, she serves on the National Association of REALTORS® Fair Housing Committee. She is also a Board Member of the Black Beauties & Butterflies Foundation, which raises awareness and funding for African American girls affected by Turner Syndrome.

In addition, Shanyelle serves as the State Liaison for the Women's Council of REALTORS® – Connecticut and is a proud member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., a distinguished Divine Nine organization whose motto is "A Community-Conscious, Action-Oriented Organization."

Beyond her professional and leadership roles, Shanyelle's greatest blessings are her family. She and her husband, Brent Young, have been married for 32 years and are the proud parents of three children and a grandson. Their twins, Brent Jr. and Shaylyn, are accomplished professionals — one a Doctor of Chiropractic and the other a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst, licensed therapist, and children's book author. Their youngest, a University of Connecticut School of Business graduate, is a Leveraged Finance Analyst at Goldman Sachs in New York City.

In her spare time, Shanyelle enjoys sewing, crafting with her Cricut, roller skating, traveling, and spending quality time with her family and friends. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she made and donated over 2,000 face masks, a reflection of her deep commitment to community and service.
