Jasmine Fortson

Jasmine J. Fortson is the founder and owner of Rebalanced by Jas, a premier mobile wellness brand providing high-quality, in-home services throughout Connecticut. With over a decade of experience as a home health aide, Jasmine recognized the need for luxurious, personalized wellness experiences delivered right to clients' doorsteps. Since 2014, she has combined her expertise as a licensed nail technician and, more recently, a trained massage therapist to build a business grounded in exceptional care and accessibility. Rebalanced by Jas offers tailored services for both men and women, helping clients feel relaxed, rejuvenated, and restored. Whether you want to unwind after a long day or maintain your grooming routine, Jasmine Fortson is the trusted professional committed to delivering every service with care, integrity, and style.
